Introduction

Welcome to another season and let's hope this one builds on the successes of the 2010-11 season.

Once again all the leagues look healthy and we look forward to many sporting encounters between old and new rivals.

- Division 1 Men: 7 Teams - All experienced, well established clubs and Troon may not have it all their own way. There are some big games with big results possible in this top district league.
- Division 2 Men: 8 Teams - Another league with most clubs well established over the last few seasons. Look out for newly promoted Sabres who are likely to cause some upsets. Cavaliers look strong too and both these teams posted their intentions in the final of the pre-season tournament.
- Division 3 Men: 9 Teams - A big league with lots of new teams and as such pretty open with lots of unknown factors. Although we would expect one of the established teams like Ayr Storm, Glasgow Uni, Dodgers or Renfrew Rocks to take the title but with a second Troon team and the new teams improving this league could be pretty hard to call and should be an interesting season in Division 3.
- Women: 7 Teams - Now has a settled look to it with 5 Glasgow, 1 East Kilbride (well Jackton to be precise) and Kilmarnock playing from the wilds of Ayrshire and very much looking like outsiders the trophy looks like staying in the city?
- Junior & Cadet Leagues: Both leagues look light in number with 6 teams each but this is an increase on last season with new teams from Airdrie, Stevenston & Renfrew joining the established clubs. The fresh competition means that there will be the usual frenetic scrap for places.

New registration has got us all on our toes as well as the referee report mechanisms which puts more pressure on someone in the clubs to get the pre-game process right. Well worth it in the end I am sure.

Reminder to all club reps to keep results flowing and stay in touch with co-ordinators for each and every change to fixtures.

Let's have a sporting and serious injury free year and may the best teams win and remember: -

Be courteous and respectful at all times to officials and each other!

Allan Turner
Chairman
