Introduction

Dear Fellow Basketball Enthusiasts,

I suspect the new season ahead may be a challenging one following some difficult decisions that had to be made as part of league re- structuring.

Two men's leagues with a full fixtures card will prove demanding for clubs and officials and will require some keen organisational juggling if they are to stay on track. Could I remind all secretaries to constantly inform the Co-ordinators and Stuart Holland of any changes or alterations as soon as possible and to send all score sheets in and telephone or text results as soon as possible after games.

Please seek co-ordinator approval for all rearranged dates for games cancelled at short-notice to avoid unnecessary fines or forfeit points.

Code of Conduct

Please make all players coaches and spectators aware of their responsibilities under this code and avoid bringing the sport into disrepute through out of control actions towards officials or other players.

Some new teams are joining the leagues this season and that is a positive sign let's welcome them with good sportsmanship and fair play.

Please be aware of competition rules and regulations. These have been put in place over the years, with all member clubs approval, to ensure fairness and evenness and to guide the executive in their decision-making in difficult situations.

Finally, may I wish all clubs a successful season.

A. Turner
